

GRADUATE STUDY IN STUDENT AFFAIRS on Semester at Sea in Summer 2010

Instructions and Application

This application is for graduate students in higher education and student affairs who are interested in sailing abroad to explore first-hand the area of student affairs in the contexts of shipboard learning and international education.

Student Affairs at Sea program participants will earn six transferable graduate credits from the University of Virginia.

Semester at Sea operates on a rolling admissions basis; therefore, there are no set application deadlines. However, we recommend applying as early as possible. Applications will be accepted until program capacity is reached.

To be considered, please submit the following:

- Application (attached)
- Resume
- Academic Transcripts (undergraduate and graduate)
- Writing Sample (see application)
- Reference Letter from Graduate Program Faculty
- $50 Application Fee (non-refundable), Payable by Check or Credit Card

Applications and accompanying materials should be submitted electronically to info@semesteratsea.org,

Or by mail to: Institute for Shipboard Education
P.O. Box 400885
Charlottesville, VA 22904

For Courier or Overnight Delivery: Institute for Shipboard Education
2410 Old Ivy Road
Charlottesville, VA 22903

Please note that when admitted to the program, you must confirm your intent to participate by submitting a $500 reservation deposit.
