

SEMESTER AT SEA®

The Institute for Shipboard Education Student Life Work-Study Grant Instructions and Application

This application is for students interested in a work-study position in the student life office aboard the MV Explorer. Students receiving this grant will be expected to work 2 hours every day while at sea. There will be no work expectations while in port. Students will also be expected to arrive several days before embarkation to assist the faculty and staff with pre-voyage preparation and student check-in. Work-study students hold an esteemed position within the shipboard community since they will have a special relationship with the faculty and staff onboard. With this award comes increased presence and responsibilities. As a result, recipients are expected to hold themselves to the highest standards when it comes to work performance and personal demeanor. Duties specific to the student life work-study position include:

- Typing and distribution of non-confidential departmental correspondence
- Staffing the student life desk
- Deliver messages to faculty, staff, and students
- Prepare signs and posters
- Additional duties as assigned
- Assisting various Living/Learning Coordinators with their specific programs; program assistants will be assigned for the following areas:
 - Medical and Mental Health Team Assistant
 - Career Development
 - Community Standards
 - Health Promotion
 - Intercultural Affairs
 - Student Leadership
 - Learning Assistance
 - Recreational Sports
 - Service Learning
 - Student Activities
 - Student Ambassador of Alumni Engagement

Students are expected to perform work duties as assigned by the Dean of Students, Assistant Dean of Students, or Assistant Executive Dean. Any student failing to perform duties as assigned may be removed from the position and required to reimburse ISE for hours not worked. Students may only apply for one work-study position.

To be considered for one of the work-study positions please submit the following:

- Application (attached)
- Résumé
- 300-500 Word essay on the following topic:
 - Describe what work ethic means to you and cite one example of how you've demonstrated your work ethic in your past experiences.

Applications must arrive in the ISE office by the due date listed for your voyage on the Semester at Sea web site.

Faxed applications will not be accepted.

Applications should be mailed to: PO Box 400885, Charlottesville, VA 22904
