

How can you contribute your time and talents to Semester at Sea?

VOLUNTEER CHECKLIST

As SAS alumni, you can communicate the value of the Semester at Sea experience with firsthand authority. Help us get the word out to others who will also have their lives changed by an SAS voyage. There are many ways to stay connected to SAS and engage in volunteer activities that strengthen our program.

STAY CURRENT

- Follow us on Facebook, Twitter, YouTube, Vimeo, and Tumblr and subscribe to our SAS blog to watch videos and read posts coming from the current voyage.
- Update your contact information using the online Alumni Directory to be sure that you receive our mail and email.
- Read e-updates to stay abreast of current topics, news, and issues.

SEMESTER AT SEA®

SUPPORT RECRUITMENT EFFORTS

- Attend a study abroad fair in your city or town with a member of the outreach team.
- Offer to host a send-off party for new students to SAS from your city or town. Speak to prospective students, lifelong learner groups, or local organizations about your SAS experience.
- Attend an Open Ship event and bring along prospective voyagers.

GET INVOLVED IN ALUMNI AND FUNDRAISING ACTIVITIES

- Make a gift to the SAS Annual Fund and encourage others to donate. (www.semesteratsea.org/give)
- Volunteer to serve as a milestone reunion rep for your voyage.
- Attend regional and chapter events in your area and/or encourage shipmates to attend with you.
- Offer to host an alumni social event in your city or town.
- Include SAS in your estate plans.
- Apply and/or encourage others to apply to serve on one of our Alumni Association councils.

WHAT ELSE CAN YOU DO?

- Display your SAS voyage certificate or memorabilia in your office, apartment, or dorm.
- Wear SAS clothing to help publicize SAS. Purchase gear at www.semesteratsea.org/shop
- Mention that you sailed on SAS in work bios, résumés, or vitaes.
- Click "Share" on the SAS website to find links and tools to make it easier to share SAS with your social networks and in your community.
