

PORT OF SPAIN, TRINIDAD & TOBAGO

Arrive: 0800 Sunday, November 13
Onboard: 1800 Monday, November 14

Brief Overview: Just off the coast of Venezuela lies the small nation of Trinidad and Tobago, two distinct islands that comprise this paradise nation (there is no word for “paradise” in the native language – they were living in it!) Archbishop Desmond Tutu called Trinidad & Tobago a “rainbow country” because of the many different races and traditions that make up the national character and society, harmoniously blending influences from Chinese, Indian, Spanish, English, African and native peoples. The country’s music, food, drink, dance, literature and folk traditions all reflect this rich cultural diversity. This is most vividly experienced during the annual Carnival activities. A leading exporter of oil, natural gas and pitch, Trinidad & Tobago is not only rich culturally, but also economically. Visitors may be surprised by the lack of beaches, but they will not be disappointed. Just adjust your expectations and be prepared to engage with the biodiversity of the rainforest, local university students and volunteers, and the warm, hospitable people for an amazing encounter in Port of Spain, Trinidad. Don’t leave without getting your own steel pan to bring home.

IMPACT: SERVICE LEARNING IN MATELOT

2 DAYS/1 NIGHT

This program is an amazing introduction to service learning. At the turn of the 20th century, Matelot was a thriving area visited daily by ferry from Port of Spain to transport cocoa, sugar and coffee from the plantations on this northern coastal town. When the plantations disappeared and the ferry stopped, the residents of the community were, in many ways, cut-off. They experienced “brain drain” as most young people left the area to find work in Port of Spain and beyond.

Amizade Global Service Learning has partnered with a local organization, Dorcas women’s group, to help foster pride and job creation in this most remote location in Trinidad. Travel 3.5 hours (over very bumpy roads) from the port to Matelot where you will spend 2 days living in the community and learning how this small group of women and visitors from Amizade are teaming together to make a difference in the lives of their neighbors and the community at large. Participants will stay in several homes throughout the community and engage in cultural experiences (local head-wrapping customs), work (various projects) and play (swim and waterfall hike) during their time in Matelot

See the video from Fall 2015 here.

“Really wonderful! The women were so hospitable, Matelot was beautiful, the head/hair wrapping was fun and I loved exploring the river/waterfront area.” –Laurel, Fall 2015 Voyager

AMAZING RACE PORT OF SPAIN ORIENTATION

FULL DAY

Depart on foot and get to know the city of Port of Spain through a fun, competitive, delicious (!) photo scavenger hunt. Participants will be divided into teams and given a list of clues and activities to complete in the allotted time. Consider this your true “Trini” experience. Clues include:

- Learn 2 verses of the popular “Hammer” song
- Order a “doubles” with everything and learn the names of the condiments that make up “everything” (every culture has a version of fried dough, this is the Trini version, and it’s delicious – tastes a LOT better than it looks in this photo!)
- Find “The City that Never Sleeps”

All teams will meet together at the end and take turns presenting what they have learned/gathered in song, Trini language and food. You don't want to miss this!

RIVER LIME (LOCAL INSTRUMENTS, SWIM, RIVERSIDE COOKING)

FULL DAY

LIME, a word original to Trinidad, has two meanings in the Urban Dictionary. Lime (Verb) - to hang out/socialize in an informal relaxing environment, especially with friends; (Noun) – a gathering or chill event. Here is your chance to experience a riverside lime and take part in something that is truly local. No big agenda here, just a fun opportunity to lime with “Trinis” (local reference to a native of Trinidad), cook with them in the outdoors, do some swimming or hiking, and making music.

EXPLORING PARAMIN: SPICE VILLAGE

FULL DAY

Participants will be amazed at the steep slopes and creative farming methods found in this fascinating agricultural area where many of the people still speak French patois. You will have the pleasure of meeting some of the local spice farmers and joining in the preparation of the harvest for market. The steep mountains make driving almost as challenging as farming, so you will travel these roads in special 4x4 jeeps.

SAN ANTONIO COCOA ESTATE & CARONI BIRD SANCTUARY

FULL DAY

The Montserrat Hills of Trinidad are known for growing and harvesting some of the finest Cocoa. Handled in a traditional and sustainable way, the 'sun-dried' cocoa beans of Montserrat estates such as San Antonio are chosen by chocolate makers the world over for their quality and superb taste.

Explore the San Antonio Cocoa Estate and witness the life of chocolate: from harvesting the dangling pods on the cocoa trees, to the processing and fermenting of the cocoa beans, and finally to the manufacturing of the final delicious chocolate product.

Whet your appetite with a sampling of chocolate products before enjoying a delicious curry lunch at San Antonio. After lunch, drive through Central Trinidad and visit the popular historic East Indian sites and monuments such as the Hanuman Statue, the Indo Caribbean Museum, and the Temple in the Sea at Waterloo.

Finish off the day with a visit to the Caroni Bird Sanctuary. Here you will view the spectacular national bird of Trinidad, the Scarlet Ibis, from the seat of a flat-bottomed boat. Watch hundreds of these magnificent birds fly in to roost at sunset.

HISTORY OF FOOD WITH ADRIAN HOWKINS (NEW!)

EVENING

Join Professor Adrian Howkins on a journey to trace the history and trade routes from Spain, India, China and Africa that give “Trini” Cuisine its amazing flavors. We begin with a visit to Barry at his Valpark Chinese Restaurant, one of the longest-serving ‘Trinese’ restaurants in the country. Here Barry will indulge us in a taste of his Cantonese style cooking and a short history of the Chen family’s legacy in food. We then make our way to the Lady Young Lookout for a mix of African, Indian, and Jamaican specialties which have dominated the local food landscape for the past 40 years. We continue to the Savannah for Spanish and Trini-influenced multicultural flavors before our final stop on the avenue with Greek and Arabian specialties.

CARNIVAL FETE

FULL DAY

Experience the music, flavor, and fun of Carnival in Trinidad at a Carnival Fete just for Semester at Sea and students from University of Trinidad & Tobago (UTT). There will be plenty of steel drum music (more than 200 steel drums – they might even let you have a go at it!), a full rhythm section (think tribal drums), a limbo contest (you won’t believe how low some can go!) and tons of other music and dancing. Additionally, there will be Carnival characters and a DJ to add to the flavor of the event. It wouldn’t be Carnival without food and drink. Each participant will receive a wristband for 2 drinks and there will be samples of the best local street food.

Dancing + food + music + Carnival characters + steel drums + limbo = a party you won’t forget!

Please note: wear a t-shirt (your SAS sea color), shorts and comfy shoes – you will be on your FEET for 3 hours! This trip is sponsored by the Tourism Development Company of Trinidad and Tobago and the local panyard.

TOBAGO GETAWAY (REEF SNORKEL & BEACH)

FULL DAY

5:30am An early morning flight takes us to the serene sister isle of Tobago – this is where you find the WHITE sand beaches and the clear waters of the Caribbean that Trinidad doesn't have. Gain a brief historical perspective of the island with a 1-hour visit to Fort King George. From this vantage point we can get a panoramic view of the city and the south eastern side of the island.

Then it's time to slather up and make our way to the Pigeon Point beach facility where we take a glass-bottomed boat for a ride to the Buccoo Reef, Nylon Pool and the Coral Gardens. Here you'll be provided with snorkels and life vests to discover yet another of our treasures. Spend the rest of your time on the beautiful white sand beach at Pigeon Point before catching an afternoon flight back to Trinidad and the ship.

Please note: Due to air reservations required for this program, this trip is non-transferable and cannot be traded or exchanged between voyagers on board. REGISTRATION DEADLINE SEPTEMBER 30.

Join naturalist Courtenay Rooks for a tromp through the swamp. On this walking and kayaking tour through the “Bush Bush” Nariva swamp area, you will have the opportunity to see the Red Howler and Capuchin monkeys; Macaws; Toucans; and possibly the endangered Manatee -- all wonderfully indigenous to Trinidad.

The swamp, located on the east coast of Trinidad, is the largest fresh water wetland in the Caribbean. Nariva has been declared a Ramsar site (an internationally important and recognized wetland).

Once everyone is ready and properly instructed, we enter Nariva by kayaking along flat water through a spectacular variety of wetland eco systems from Mangrove to marsh forests and grasslands. After kayaking for over 35 minutes we arrive at the Bush Bush Wildlife Sanctuary, which is a land peninsula that juts out into Nariva Swamp and is home to Red Howler and Capuchin Monkeys. These amazing primates are easiest seen when hiking in the forests. The monkeys can be found among branches of the larger trees of the Seasonal Evergreen Tropical Forests that dominates this area. Since the Howlers and Capuchins are very mobile, we may see them very quickly or it may take a lot of sweat and effort to spy them in their natural habitat; patience is key. This area also offers other wildlife such birds like the Black-crested Antshrike, Silvered Antbird, Gallinules, Macaws, or Butterflies like the Blue Emperor Morpho.

We will explore the forest for a couple hours and then take it easy kayaking back to where we started with help from the river's currents. Then we will depart for Plum Mitan. There we meet a local family, the Sooknanans, who are great friends. They will prepare an absolutely scrumptious bus-up-shut country style curry lunch for us. DELICIOUS! After thanking our hosts, we head back to the ship.

“It was a unique experience to go into the swamp. I liked that it immersed us so fully” –Shannan, Fall 2015 Voyager

Please note: Students should wear a bathing suit under their clothes (swim suits & surfing trunks are best, Jeans are too restrictive and heavy) and wear SECURE sandals or shoes. BUG SPRAY is critical.
